Spectrum photo contest

BY SPECTRUM

28 SEPTEMBER 2017

Hey scientists, send us your best science photos from 2017! Winning images will be featured in a slide show in our 2017 Year in review issue.

The grand prize is a beautifully illustrated book of Spectrum's best feature articles. All top entries will be featured on the site, and the winners will receive a Spectrum tote bag.

Send your entries to community@spectrumnews.org with your name, institution and a brief description of the image by 20 November. (Images should be approximately 300 dpi at 5 by 7 inches.)
